

The federal government provides three main forms of housing assistance:

1. Assistance for homeowners/homebuyers
2. Direct assistance for low-income renters
3. Grants to states and localities to help provide affordable housing

For information about all federal housing programs, go to <http://www.hud.gov> or <http://www.fha.gov>.

Frequently Asked Questions

Where can I find housing counseling agencies?

You can find low-cost or free HUD-approved counseling on rental assistance, foreclosure prevention, debt management, buying a home, etc. here .

I am facing foreclosure on my home because of predatory lending. Where can I get assistance?

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has approved agencies throughout Minnesota to provide housing and financial counseling to individuals and families. You can find a list of HUD-approved foreclosure counseling agencies here .

I have a Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher and I am having trouble with my landlord or property management company. How can Congressman Walz's office help me?

My office has a designated liaison at the Minneapolis HUD field office that will help constituents resolve issues with their landlords or management companies. Additionally, my office can help you resolve a problem you are having if you live in public housing.

Please fill out a Privacy Act Release form and send it to my Rochester office and make sure to include your full name, property location and name, and the name of your housing authority or agency.